APRIL 2009 MORRILL MUSINGS

Message from the Director,

Charlotte Canelli

- Watch us on Norwood Public Access TV on our Library Show with new shows taped each month.
- Pick up a copy of the Morrill Musings at the library or download the PDF version directly from our website.
- Read the From the Library column in the Daily News Transcript and Norwood Bulletin each week written by the library director and guest columnists, from the Morrill Memorial Library staff.

Return to Camelot on Tuesday, April 7 at 7:00 pm to see Boston actress Robin Lane dramatize the life of the charismatic and enigmatic Jackie Kennedy in "An American Original: Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis." In this compelling one-woman performance, Robin Lane reveals the real Jackie O—the private woman behind the public mask—while keeping alive the magic and mystique of this favorite First Lady

Award-winning Irish author Aine Greaney returns to the library to present a four-hour, writing-intensive workshop entitled "Your Long Story Short: Write and Publish Your Story" on Saturday, April 18 from 10 a.m.-2:00 p.m. The session will include an opportunity to craft vivid memoir scenes from your own life, as well as peer feedback and information on getting your short memoir/essay published. This free program is funded by the Friends of the Library and will be limited to 12-15 people. Register at the library or by calling 781-769-0200, ext. 223.

NOTHIN' BUT A VOICE AND A MICROPHONE

On Sunday, April 26 at 3:00 pm the library will present its fifth performance in the Musical Sundays series. Redline Boston, an a cappella group from the Boston area, will wow the audience with its rendition of music performed only with voices and microphones. These ten young men will bring no instruments but plenty of sound with songs from the Beatles, Stevie Wonder, Michael Buble and more. Be sure to sign up early for this program by calling the library, 781-769-0200. The Musical Sundays series will end with the May 17 performance of the Neponset Valley Chamber Players at 3:00 pm.

Magic of Science Vacation Week

Wed. April 22@2pm

What you see is what you get! Right? Maybe—but we can be tricked and magicians know how. Our senses tell us about the world around us but what do we know about our senses? Learn how your brain makes sense about what you see and how magicians use your own brain to trick you! Learn some 'magic' tricks to try out on your friends. All this and more as we explore how we see the world. Michael Koski, presenter. This is a free library program! Registration required. This performance is best suited for children ages 5-12.

HOLD THAT BOOK! APRIL 2009 RELEASES

AN EVENING WITH AINE

Those who attended Irish author Aine (pronounced Ahnya) Greaney's March 18th lecture on writing the short personal essay were rewarded with a lively discussion of her writing career, wonderful pictures of the places in County Mayo, Ireland and the U.S. that inspired her writing—and lots of laughs.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING
